

THE MAZOMANIE SICKLE.

VOL. XLVII.

MAZOMANIE, DANE COUNTY, WISCONSIN, FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1920

NO. 9

A Communication.

At the election held last December on the Union Free High School question, there were 132 voting for, and 13 against, in the village, and 77 for, with 88 against, in the town. Certainly, many of these, both in the village and in the town, who voted against the Union Free High School, voted against their own financial interests. The law requires that the ballots shall read: "For Union Free High School," and "Against Union Free High School." It is quite possible that a number of voters thought they were voting for or against a new high school building. The question had absolutely nothing to do with the building of a new high school, but was simply a question of whether the present high school district should be enlarged so as to include the whole of the township. If the district should vote to erect a new high school building, or if the state department should condemn our present building, that would be all the more reason why those having the largest part of the property within the present district should vote to enlarge the district.

The question is to be voted on again at the coming election and it is to be hoped that many, with a better understanding of the question, will vote for the Union Free High School. It is only a fair proposition and even those whose taxable property is outside of the present high school district should vote for this proposition, simply as a spirit of fairness. Does it seem fair that an imaginary line should be drawn, somewhere out in the township, and the property owner on one side of the line be taxed for the support of a high school within the township boundaries, while the property owner on the other side of the line is not taxed for the support of the high school? The whole township benefits by having a high school within its boundary, and it is not likely that many, in these precious times, will want to receive these benefits without paying their share of the cost.

Another very good reason for voting

Extracts of More Letters.

Lone Rock, March 26, 1920.
I enclose $25.00 for the suit you sent me. I am well pleased. The suit I had here from Sears I returned because I liked your best.

Yours truly,
George Erick.

Richland Center, March 24, 1920.
Have you any more suits on hand like you sent me? Mine you sent me that but I have had trouble with the one today to see if I had received any more of them. I'll see try to send me some more.

Yours truly,
Charles Kruenly.

Buta Bros.,—
I am so well pleased with the suits you sent me, that I would like to have you look out for an overcoat and suit for next fall for me. I would prefer a brown overcoat. Let me know when you have what you think I want, and I will come down or have you send them to me as before.

Yours truly,
A. E. Livergood.

Extract from George Tinker's letter, Tremont, Minn.:—
"Dear Father: I wish you would go to Buta Bros. to see if you can pick me out one of those suits I read so much about in the Sickle. Also pick out two nice boys' suits, age 10 and 12."

Ration Demonstration.

Italians which will aid in reducing the cost of beef and pork production will be demonstrated to the breeders and feeders of Wisconsin at their experiment station at Madison on April 2 and 3.

The Wisconsin Live Stock Breeders' Association and the Wisconsin Hereford Breeders' Association will hold important meetings Friday April 2 Saturday will be the big day in the feeding pens and experimental lots.

Two lots of steer—one fed corn silage, shelled corn, cotton seed meal and hay, the other fed ground barley, corn silage, cotton seed meal and hay—will take the attention of the beef makers.

April 3 beginning at 10 o'clock. An hour later will see the feeders in the baby beef corral where ground barley and cracked corn have been fed in comparison.

Pork production will feature the Saturday afternoon program, feeding trials showing the value of yellow corn as compared with white corn, comparison of Siskin, skinned milk, wheat, soybeans, as supplements to corn and barley, pasture crops for pigs, raising better litters—to make up an afternoon of good things for the hog feeder and breeder.

The Best Laxative.
"My sedentary habits have necessitated the use of an occasional laxative. I have tried many but found nothing better than Chamberlain's Tablets," writes George F. Daniels, Hardwick, Vt. Mr. Daniels is proprietor of the Hardwick Inn, one of the noted hotels of New England.—Advertisement.

Child Welfare Board Appeals To Voters Of Dane County.

The Child Welfare Board of Dane County, which assists Judge Hoppman of the Superior Court in the Mother's Pension and other cases affecting the interests of children, takes this method of reminding the voters of the county of the great importance of the coming election with reference to the welfare of our children and other interests of a social nature.

Especially is the election of the County Board of Supervisors a matter in which all should be interested who have children in the county, because, of misfortune, are deprived of the opportunities and the care which all children should have.

Through the Mother's Pension Law, the County Board becomes the guardian of needy children, and assumes the obligation to make such provisions for their care and training as will enable them to develop into intelligent and upright men and women.

The Dane County Board of Supervisors has in the past met its obligations most generously; its members for the most part have understood that money spent to conserve the health and moral of its children and to provide proper schooling is the most profitable investment that the county can make; and they have realized that the surest way to safeguard the children is to keep them in the home with the mother.

We hope that the voters of the county who have in the past shown so firm a spirit and generous an appreciation of the value of childhood, and who have stood consistently for the carrying out of a liberal policy in the operation of the Mother's Pension Law, will ask the voters to remember the children when they go to the polls on April sixth, and without personal or partisan bias, to secure the election of a Board of Supervisors which will continue to show a generous and intelligent attitude toward the children of our county.

(Signed)
Mr. T. C. Purcell,
Mrs. J. N. Donald,
Mrs. Edith E. Hoyt.

Judge Clementson, Of Circuit Bench, Dies.

Lancaster, Wis., March 30.—Judge George Clementson of the fifth Wisconsin judicial district, oldest member of the state circuit court bench, died at his home here this morning from the effects of a paralysis stroke suffered ten days ago.

Judge Clementson was 78 years old and had presided as judge in the first district for 36 consecutive years, a record in this state.

The judge was stricken March 19 after returning from the funeral of a friend at Lancaster. His entire right side became paralyzed but his mental faculties were spared and it was thought for a time that he would recover.

Health Work To Be Held In Dane County Schools.

During the 5th of April to the 11th of April there will be a Health Program in Dane County village and rural schools.

The important factors to be emphasized are fresh air, cleanliness, nutrition and play. Aside from the outlined program that is to be followed in all the schools daily during the week, every effort will be made to increase the interest by sending out play leaders workers in nutrition, and by having special speakers, such as local health officers, physicians, dentists, nurses, town chairmen, village principals or other individuals in the community.

Each day during the Health Week there will be a warm lunch served in the schools or where that is impossible the children will be urged to bring milk, cocoa, or some food that can be warmed for the lunch.

Most schools in the county have a Health Committee in their School Society. These Health Committees will be partly responsible for the Health Program during the week. A health officer will be appointed by the School Society to direct the play, and to show the difference between the vigorous game to be played at recess and the quiet game to be played after a meal. The teacher will be the chief health advisor. The boy who doesn't play is father to the man without a job.

Opening exercises will be devoted to demonstrations on first aid, bandaging, fainting, etc. Demonstrations will also be given on the care of the finger nails and teeth. Physical exercises are being developed and correct posture will be taught to the children.

Health games, songs, stories, rhymes, will be used in the daily program, and health subjects will be studied, as, for instance: In physiology each child will draw a diagram of his own teeth, putting in the decayed and repaired teeth. Histories of men will be studied who were strong by obeying the laws of good health, for example: Theodore Roosevelt.

During the week, cleaning, mending, sewing, washing, health talks, singing, games, etc. Health posters will be made and displayed during this time in the schools.

Special emphasis will be placed on cleanliness of clothes, handkerchiefs, and washing of hands before eating meals.

All children are to be weighed and measured during this week. A house-keeping committee will be appointed to see that the school room is well aired, dusted and in good order.

Wednesday of this week is School Board Members' Day. All school board members are invited to come to the school house to be present for some part of the Health Program. The children will show in what ways the school house does not permit proper facilities for cleanliness, comfort, correct lighting, seating, toilets, water supply, etc.

On Friday, the last day of the Health Week, the mothers in the school district are asked to come to the school. The School Society will have charge of the program and repetition of the Health work done during the week, with possibly a Health Playlet, will be given.

All schools will send a copy of the week's proceedings to the local newspapers and one to the County Nurse's Office at the Court House.

Four scales have been purchased by the Junior Red Cross. The scales will be left in one school in each supervising teacher's district, during the last Health work during the Health Week.

The Health Week program will be under the supervision of the two County Nurses, Miss Gertrude Burman of the Eastern District and Miss Mabel Danblon of the Western District.

The cooperation of all the members of the school districts is urged, to make the week a success.

Tornado Dead Near 500.
Revised reports from the eight states swept by Sunday's tornado placed the number of dead at 100, with 945 in the southern states and 25 in the southern as follows:

Indiana 26, Illinois 20, Ohio 26, Michigan 11, Missouri 1, Wisconsin 1, Georgia 38, Alabama 17.

Hot telegraph and telephone communications were established with nearly all stricken communities in Illinois and Ohio, but Michigan reported that many rural regions were still cut off.

"WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD," HE SAYS.

Whitlike Was So Run Down Condition Alarmed His Wife And Friends.

"This Tanale has been worth its weight in gold to me and I just feel fine I want everybody to know about it," said Walter S. Whitlike when he called at the Central Drug Co. in Milwaukee, Wis., the other day. Mr. Whitlike is a well known expert of the Federal Rubber Company at Cudahy, a suburb of Milwaukee, but he lives in Milwaukee at 75 Howell Avenue.

"Why," I had suffered so long and was so weak and run down that my friends were remarking how bad I looked and my wife was greatly alarmed," continued Mr. Whitlike. "I don't believe any man ever suffered with his stomach as bad as I did, for after nearly every meal gas sharp pains across my heart that I could hardly breathe. Dull heavy headaches came on me and when they did I would begin to get dizzy and my eyes would quiver and if I didn't sit right down right away I would fall over. My back hurt and pained me so bad that if somebody came up behind me and laid their hands on my back I would jump like I was shot at and my stomach hurt me so at times that I could hardly bear for my clothes to stay on me. Sometimes I had cramping in my stomach and I would have to bend over to get relief. I didn't sleep well, often I would be up half the time trying to relieve the pains in my back and stomach, and I was so nervous and nervous that sometimes I would be lying in bed half asleep and would jump up all at once when I heard any little noise out of the ordinary. My muscles at times would grip me in the legs while I was lying in bed and I would have to get out of bed and get on my feet before I could get relief. My appetite was almost completely gone and I had lost about fifteen pounds in weight and I was so weak and felt so bad that I could hardly do my work."

"This is the actual condition I was in and I had been suffering this way for five years when one day I saw a Tanale statement in the paper that described my case almost exactly and so got a bottle. Well, sir, it seems like a dream to me and my wife is so happy and my friends are congratulating me on the way my troubles have been cured. I feel like I have been reborn."

short a time for I've only taken two bottles of Tanale. Why I can eat anything I please now and never have even so much as an uncomfortable feeling in my stomach, chest or back, and I can sleep like a log and have to be as free as a man could want them and my muscles don't cramp or grip me at all now, and I don't have any dizzy spells or headaches any more. Tanale is certainly a godsend to me, and I just feel so fine that as long as I live I'll never miss a chance to praise it."

Why Colds are Dangerous.

You are often told to "beware of a cold," but why? We will tell you: Every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases. People who contract pneumonia first take cold. The longer a cold hangs on, the greater the danger, especially from the germ diseases, as a cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. The quicker you get rid of your cold, the less danger of contracting one of these diseases. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation as a cure for colds and can be depended upon. It is pleasant to take. -Advertisement.

Trade For Better Eggs.

It is now recognized by all who give the matter a thought that the demand is growing constantly more and more for the large, clean shell, fresh eggs and the farmer who is careless about his flock and consequently produces a small or dirty egg or who leaves them lay around until they are more or less shrunken if not partially decomposed, is reducing the average quality of the eggs produced in his community to such a degree that the eggs from that section sell for just that much less than they would if the general average was higher in quality and style. To those few farmers who market eggs in or near Mazomanie who have a flock of hens that are producing small eggs we want to offer to trade them some pure bred eggs from the larger fowls for their more or less small eggs. To make a long story short we will trade eggs from flocks of Rhode Island Reds, Barred Rocks, Black Minorcas, Buff Orpingtons or any one of several other breeds as we have them when applied for to bona fide resident farmers who want them to set and improve the size and quality of eggs in this section, who can call at our store bringing their eggs with them and take back those we exchange. -Advertisement.
