The Rally begins at ten a. m. and there will be singing, food, and good music, good fellowship and also recreation for body and mind. A pleasant and inspirational time for all.—Rev. Stephen C. Fiska, Pastor.

SCHOOL NEWS

The mazomanie examinations were begun on Tuesday.

The basket ball girls are making soldiers in the school colors for Friday night.

The sixth and sixth grades enjoyed a stunts party in Black Earth, Thursday night.

Don't forget that the boys and girls teams of Black Earth B. B. play with the Mazomanie team on Friday night, January 23rd.

First and Second Grades.

The following received 100 in spelling: Elsie Hahn, John Hahn, Clark Farnum, Marion Slack, Alice Hansen, Kathryn Linley, Margaret Caroush, Kathryn Sullivan, Dorothy Anderson, Madeline Crank, Ann Kell, Madeline Walter, Robert Linley, Alice Fiska, Paul Stegmann, Veronika Stutz, Scott Breen, Florence Stutz, Andrew Anderson, and Clarence Hildebrand.

The third Friday number given last Friday evening was a devoted success. In presenting "The Other Fellow's Show" the L. Verne Stutz presented a very interesting and entertaining evening to those who saw them. The portrayal of "Two Tailors" by Mr. Hildebrand was particularly good. The only disappointing feature of the evening's program was the small attendance of town people. The "Lynceus" Circus is offering Mazomanie people an opportunity to hear and see some really good comedians at little cost. It is the last that so few of them were present at the last two evenings. Remember that the fourth and last number is coming Tuesday, Friday, and this number will be followed by a social hour for all.

If you don't want to miss something go to the store.

The Mazomanie High School basketball team was defeated by the Black Earth team at Black Earth Saturday night by a score of 25-17. The Mazomanie boys were, from left to right: The first quarter ended: Barnard 2, Mazomanie 0. The only period in the game which was tagged was the second quarter. The game ended at the end of the first half, 16-2. This was enough to make the boys heart-broken. But in the second half our boys went back on the floor with the old fight. They found the basket and played a good defensive game, but as Barnard had too big a lead for the boys to overcome, the game ended with Barnard 2, Mazomanie 17. No one needs to be ashamed of this score, because the boys put up a real fight. The second half surely showed that our team know basket ball and can play it.

Remember this: Friday we meet Black Earth on our own floor. Let's have a big crowd out, as we have a good team. Now all they need is your backing. So everybody out this Friday night. The girls will also meet the Black Earth girls this Friday night.

CLUB WORK AMONG BOYS AND GIRLS

By getting into the game playing it fairly and squarely and not quitting until the whistle blows. So successful Mazomanie boys and girls, representing 39 different counties, have been awarded recognition by the College of Agriculture.

This telling definition of the work that lies ahead of the boy or girl who is endeavoring to become an achievement member of a club, was given by one of the boy workers.

Juvenile representatives from 39 counties "received" achievement buttons. A maximum of 10 young workers were eligible to receive the achievement buttons as tokens of their efficiency in a club project.

All club projects include calf, pig, baby beef, poultry, sheep, corn, garden, potato, bee and alfalfa clubs. In addition projects in clothing, canning and baking were carried out by the girls. Mazomanie county fared well in the awards. Marcel Stutz, baby beef club; Regis Froh, canning project; Evelyn Bloch, canning project. When a girl boy or girl shows ability in plan and execution, he or she is given a chance to become a voluntary club leader. In this way are Mazomanie's future agricultural leaders being developed.

The outstanding boy and girl club leader in the state during this last year were Edward Marsh, Kewaunee, Wisconsin county; and Corinne Hedega, Vilhena, Wisconsin county. The best assistant of leadership skill which will receive a gold watch given by the Wisconsin Agricultural.

Adult leadership awards, consisting of gold watches, went to Earl Hildebrand, Cochrane, Buffalo county, and to Miss Anna Hansen, Pleasant Prairie, Kenosha county. Paid workers were not eligible for these awards.

The Mazomanie Training Club in the state is the Booth School, Cottage Creek, Dane county, of which Mr. Charles Booth is the head teacher. Eight members of this club earned 1000 points.

As a reward for their excellence in carrying these club numbers will have their expenses paid to Madison during the Club Week in June. The members are Vera McIntire, Marquette county; Ruby Wilson, Vernon county and Evelyn Booth of Dodge county.

Of the 20,000 Wisconsin boys and girls enrolled in club work, in part of them conduct their leaders' stated W. McNeil, assistant state boys and girls club leader, in summing up the extent and benefits of club work. "County agents and club leaders are emphasizing the importance of the completed task," he continued, "and as a consequence the percentage of completions runs comparatively high in this state."

THE HOME ORCHARD

Apple growers in Wisconsin are beginning to realize that it is impossible to grow and market a large number of varieties. As a result they have been searching for proof that certain varieties when grown commercially would prove to be the best for Wisconsin conditions.

A summary of conditions this past season brings to light the fact that there are five outstanding varieties which produce well and market well under Wisconsin conditions. They are the McIntosh, Parson, North western Greening, Wealthy and Wolf River. These varieties may be produced to a point near perfection, and cover the eating and cooking demands of the market.

In the home orchard such varieties as Duchess, or Golden Russet may be added to please the owner, but such varieties have been proved unsatisfactory commercially in Wisconsin. The Wisconsin State Horticultural Society has a convenient pamphlet in which is listed fruit varieties which do well in Wisconsin and which may be had upon application to the Secretary at Madison. These lists have been prepared by experts who are familiar with Wisconsin conditions.

MR. HOBBS TO HAVE MARKETING INSTITUTE

Mr. Hobbs will be the head of the third cooperative marketing institute for foreign trade in America on February 10, 11, and 12. Besides letters sent to others and directors of factories and a hundred per cent favorable according to E. L. Luther, Superintendent of the Wisconsin Farmers' Institute. The first foreign trade institute was held at Beaver Dam in the early part of December. It was an enthusiastic success of factory owners, exporters and shippers. The institute will be held at Beaver Dam in the early part of December. It was an enthusiastic success of factory owners, exporters and shippers. The institute will be held at Beaver Dam in the early part of December. It was an enthusiastic success of factory owners, exporters and shippers.

The second institute will be at Burlington the latter part of January. The Mr. Hobbs institute is the last of the series on foreign trade. Other cooperative marketing institutes are scheduled on butter and eggs in various parts of the state. The institute is being arranged so that it will cover the various phases of the cheese industry from the grower to the consumer, economic and marketing discussions predominating. The institute will be under the personal direction of Mr. Luther. Factory executives and especially women are being invited from the foreign cheese district of—France, Greece and—Italy.

Thirty-one years ago the first farmers' institute in America was held at Hudson, N. Y., Dutchess county. Since then every state in the Union and Canada have followed. Wisconsin's lead in establishing institutes. This year Wisconsin is holding the first cooperative marketing institute in America. Mr. Hobbs holds some things.

FARMERS' WEEK TO FEATURE HOLSTEIN JUDGING SCHOOL

One of the many projects to be featured by the Holstein-Friesian Association of Wisconsin during the year is the new year is the Holstein judging school to be held in connection with Farmers' Week at the College of Agriculture during the first week in February. The school will be under the instruction of Prof. Ray C. Howe, formerly of the University of Wisconsin, now of Illinois. The school will be divided into three sections: a lecture series using the new type models as a basis; demonstration lectures using live animals; and a practical series of the breed, and an actual

NATIONAL RADIO FADING TESTS START FEB. 9TH

Tests for the National tests of radio reception to determine the causes of static and fading were announced today after 4,000 of the "100 designated observation stations" had expressed a willingness to take part in the survey, which is being conducted by the Stewart-Warner Corporation in cooperation with the Northwestern University. The first test will be held on the night of February 9th, from 8 to 11 o'clock central standard time. The second and third will be on the two succeeding nights at the same hour. Subsequent trials will be held throughout the winter, should the data obtained indicate that real progress is in a search for the causes of them two major radio annoyances is possible.

It was originally planned to hold these tests in January, but owing to the international tests scheduled for that month it was decided to hold the fading and static tests at a later date.
Most of the observations will be made by broadcast listeners using standard receiving sets and depending for the accuracy of their reports upon their own ears. However, to insure the scientific accuracy of the report, twenty control stations equipped with electrical measuring devices and automatic recorders will be placed in the principal broadcasting centers of the country.

Taking the Talk Road Into Town

THERE'S not a single person shown in this picture, yet over the tiny roads of copper many voices are travelling to town—some to buy and others to sell.

The road to town by telephone is always shorter and quicker and the cost of the trip is usually considerably less.

The next time you have business to transact away from home, handle it by telephone and save time and energy for more productive work at home.

When Business is Good

Saturday night is a mighty good time to ask yourself this question: "Is our community sending more money out of town than is coming in each week?" Of course the only safe answer is "NO!"

This means that we folks in this neighborhood must patronize local supply men and merchants if we expect our town to prosper and "stay on the map."

Frankly, it means that every citizen will find it most profitable to read the advertisements in this paper every issue, and to follow their good advice.

Our advertisers are all personally interested in this town—and in YOU. They are helping you build a better home community. When business is good, their profits are being shared with you in an endless chain of co-operative betterment.
