TERRY'S BIG

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN

There are many grand enterprises that have become great from small beginnings. One of the greatest successes of modern times, that is due to push, energy and honest determination, is to be found in the mammoth enterprise that has entered in the public domain for instructive amusement for the last thirty-three years. From the days of small things it has mounted upwards until now the great success stands at the top with competitors for Terry's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. is now a household word. The teachers in the public schools, the preacher from the pulpit, the lecturer from the platform, father and mother each and all encourage the attendance to see this great national drama presented in its entirety as produced by the Terry

Company. There is no secret in their success. It is simply "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" honest with the public. Giving a true representation of Harriet Ward Beecher Stowe's wonderful story of slavery days before the Civil War. They carry the best bands and orchestras that money can produce—good, clean, skillful actors, the real plantation dinkies and genuine Negro bloodedness. No make-believe "of everything in order and 'of the best." Terry's Uncle Tom's Cabin is what we would be glad to have every man, woman and child see this story presented by this company, for we believe the story when written, was what led up to one of the greatest events in our nation's history. Terry's honest, Challenge bands will give a concert on the street at 1 p. m. on the day of its appearance, so everyone should lay aside other engagements for that day and make the occasion the real show day. One night performance only at Milwaukee on Saturday, May 15th.

A PECULIAR EXPERIENCE

Brooklyn Teller—Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hollibush, who reside on the Scholesing farm, town of Cresco, had week, which for a few days gave them the shivers.

Mrs. Richard, who is staying at the Hollibush home, has a boy about four years of age, who climbed on the running board of the Ford touring car as it moved in the sun near the house. Mr. and Mrs. Hollibush received a shock—call to hurry to Stoughton, to see his father, Mrs. O. G. Mahoney, who was ill. The curtains were on the car and they got in on the opposite side from where the boy was asleep, not knowing he was there. They drove about four miles near the home of Frank Newell and were told what they were carrying. The little fellow was not hurt.

It was a peculiar experience and speaks well of Dane county's good roads, or the little fellow would have been shaken from the running board, as there was nothing to hold him on.

OBITUARY

Wills Dodge

Wills V. Dodge, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Holden Dodge, was born in Warren, Vermont, May 16, 1876, and passed away at Montfort, Wis., May 1, 1935, aged forty-nine years, eleven months and fifteen days.

He came to Mazomanie, Wis., with his parents when a child. Here he lived until September 12, 1906, when he was united in marriage to Mrs. Margaret Paulsen and soon after located at Waunakee, Wis., where they made their home for eighteen years, during which time he held many positions of honor and trust, until under the advice of competent medical practitioners an operation was performed Friday, but all their heroic efforts proved fruitless.

He was cheerful and patient until the death messenger called him home on Saturday morning. Besides his wife, he leaves to mourn his death one sister, Mrs. Jennie Wilkins of Moscow, Vermont, and a great number of friends.

The funeral was held at Montfort on Monday under Masonic rites, W. E. Graves of Prairie du Sac in charge. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Harpersville, August on Sunday and to attend the funeral were Dr. C. J. Willard and his mother.

Mrs. Mary Dowling, for many years a resident of this village, but at present living in a sanatorium at St. Cloud, Minn., is the oldest resident woman on the Wisconsin pension list. She was born in Ireland October 28, 1823, and came to this country at the age of eight years. She served as teacher in Wisconsin schools for more than fifty years, in Dane and Iowa counties. STARTED AS CLOWN

Showing in a circus arena taught him the essentials of movie pantomime, claims Charlie Murray, who has a featured comedy role in "Her Second Chance" in support of Anna Q. Nilsson and Huntly Gordon. Murray joined a big-top show when he was fourteen and for many years he was acrobat and clown. After a long season in vaudeville under the team name of Murray and Mack, he entered the movies.
