An Ambitious Church.

Ambitious? A term applicable to at least one church in Madison.
Luther Memorial Cathedral holds its doors open all year round. Think of a strong, gracious body of church students slowly bringing divine influence to bear fifty-two Sundays in the year, without a break.

Many a weary heart who comes within its doors when journeying through the town in feverish seeking after rest and pleasure may feel a sudden lightening. They may not know what has happened, but the secret is there. Luther Memorial is here Sunday after Sunday to minister to them. Meet these church people half-way, give them an opportunity to be your friends. Test them by visiting them next Sunday.

Luther Memorial is ambitious to be known for its unflinching service—a service that knows no change nor season.
Music will play a large part in the coming Sunday service. Fifteen minutes of music on the Grand Organ before the service will repay early comers.

TRANSMITS RADIOS TO HORSE.

A horse belonging to a Calaisville farmer is dead from rabies, as a result of having been bitten by a stray dog. Three days before the horse died he became violent, snapping and biting at the other animals and attempting to attack people who approached him.

KILLED AT PRAIRIE DU SAC.

Paul Schmeidler, 70, a retired farmer, was killed almost instantly at Prairie du Sac Wednesday morning when he fell from a tree in front of the J. U. Schmidt garage and landed headfirst on a recent sidewalk. He is survived by his widow and several children.

FATAL EXPLOSION.

As the result of an early explosion of a charge of dynamite set by himself, Melvin Lewis, 29, of Mt. Horeb, died Friday morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lewis, four miles south of Mt. Horeb. His companion, Leonard Husted, was not injured. They set two charges and mistook the echo of the first blast for the discharge of the second.

WARRANTED F. O. HOBBS.

Two men who have admitted robbing the postoffice at Wausau early last Friday morning, were arrested at Wausau, Monday, and taken to Madison, Wednesday. The men are Albert and Rudolph Ekstrom, and claim to be from Montana, where they are charged with other robberies. At Wausau they broke into the postoffice, loaded the 1,000-pound iron safe into their car and drove half a mile out of the village, and there forced open the door. About $42 in cash and stamps, and some registered packages were taken.

HUGE WHISKY STILL.

A huge moonshine whiskey distillery was uncovered Friday in the water stretches of the Mississippi river bottoms near Prairie du Sac. Three state prohibition officers, C. A. Stephenson, of Prairie du Sac, Ben Parkinson, of Madison, and H. M. Hillary, of Dodgeville. A 100-gallon still and 20 barrels of whiskey wash were found.

SPEEDWAY ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Joseph Wundell, of Madison, suffered a broken shoulder and her husband was severely bruised when the car in which they were riding turned over on the old speedway road two miles south of Middleton, Friday. The accident occurred when a tire on the car blew out.

WEED OUT 600 HOTELS.

That Wisconsin has approximately 1,800 licensed hotels is shown by the 1926 edition of the directory of hotels issued by the hotel division of the state board of health. This disclosure that hotels have decreased by about 600, a result of a process of weeding out of pseudo-hotels and other places where the hotel name was not justified. The list specifies 500 summer resort hotels.

OREGON HALLELUJAH CAMP.

Rev. Jack Ling's Hallelujah camp meeting at Oregon opened last Friday with preaching, singing, orchestra music and bells. The camp will continue through Sunday, August 15th, with three preaching services each day.

CULINARY TRIUMPH.

This, from a daily paper, looks altogether reasonable: Cutting up an onion and placing it over the top of roasting meat flavors the meat as well as the gravy.

BURNED CAR FOR INSURANCE.

John Hammerly, Jr., of Madison, who confessed to burning his automobile to collect insurance, was sentenced last Thursday to serve three months in the Milwaukee house of correction for unlawfully obtaining property, but sentence was deferred and the youth was placed on probation to T. C. Purcell until he becomes of age. He was ordered to complete payments on the car which he burned and to pay his parents $40 a month for his support.

SNEEZES SHOULDER OUT.

Max Lavell was talking to a group of friends at Summer Point, Iowa, when he was seized with a violent fit of sneezing. After it was over a severe pain in his shoulder caused him to go to the hospital, where it was found the shoulder was dislocated.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

Shirley Joe Duggan, Underhillville, Ind., and two prohibition officers came to Mazomanie, Saturday afternoon, armed with search warrants. They searched three or four different places, but obtained no definite results until they raided the residence of Mrs. R. Luther, where, it is alleged, a million tag and several joints of marijuana were found. Those who witnessed the raid say it was an exciting affair. The screams of the children, together with the loud talking and shouting brought out quite a number of spectators. The raid, on the being occurred between 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. During the search of the apartment Luther is said to have grabbed the tag and rushed with it from the house. He sprang back into the side yard, and the tag was "mashed." Then ensued a spectacular "game" between Sheriff Duggan and Luther, in which the former received a black eye, and as the battle was not staged in a restricted ring area, it carried these points much over the large hit adjoining the house. Luther was taken to Madison shortly before six o'clock, but returned home that night. He was arraigned before Judge S. R. Schell in superior court at Madison, Monday morning, where he pleaded not guilty to possession of liquor, and was admitted to bail of $2,000 for a hearing, Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Luther and two children moved here from Springfield a few weeks ago, having purchased and are now operating the former Morris & Jones restaurant. Without waiting for the hearing, the one was omitted Sunday, Luther being spent some of the morning interviewing liquor.

Strand Theatre Seeks

Radio Talent Here

The Strand Theatre of Madison has just announced a very unusual contest which is open to every one in this community in the form of a Radio contest at that theatre every Monday night at the 7:00 and 9:00 p.m. shows, starting August 8.

The purpose of this contest is to seek out satisfactory talent for radio broadcasting purposes over WIDEA, the Strand Theatre radio broadcasting station, located at the Strand Theatre at Madison, Wis.

For the shortage of good material for broadcasting radio programs, the Strand management decided to hold a contest of this nature every week. The trials to take place on the stage of the Strand Theatre as a feature of the regular Monday night performance.

The Strand is anxious to have as many persons as possible compete, and are especially anxious to get in touch with old-time fiddlers, players of accordion, harmonica, banjo, either in fact any instrument that will broadcast satisfactorily, and of course they are anxious to hear from singers, quartets, and the like.

The best talent from these Monday night contests will compete in a final contest to be held there at a date to be announced within a few weeks, and from this talent will be selected the outstanding talent which will have an opportunity to not only sing on a radio broadcasting contract but will have an opportunity to make the general appearance through the state if the applicants are so inclined.

This is an opportunity for contestants to win some valuable money prizes which will be awarded at the end of each performance to the talent receiving the greatest applause in addition to the offer of regular broadcast work.

A coupon will be found at the bottom of the Strand Theatre advertisement appearing in this issue and in readers of this paper are urged to fill out the coupon immediately and return to the theatre manager in the event they care to take part.

FIND ROTTEN EGGS—FINED.

Field men of the Wisconsin Department of Markets have reported that the recent hot weather in the state has been responsible for a sharp increase in the number of rotten eggs being found. Prosecutions against P. Engelbinger, J. S. Fuchs, Sr., and Ed Schum, all of Durand, were filed on July 21 for failure to comply with the egg candling regulations. Rotten eggs were found in shipments made by these men. A number of other complaints are pending.

The Racine county Milk Producers' association in mass meeting Monday night at Frankville decided to declare a milk strike soon after August 5, if the Racine dealers refuse to pay $2.50 per hundred weight for July and $3.00 or more for August milk.

A Party in the Country

By O. Lawrence Hawthorne

Oh, a party in the country is a carnival of fun. While a party in the city is a bore! And the city people sigh and yawn till each ordinal is done. But the country folks will always beg for more. Almost every city person thinks that everybody there is a piker or a misanthrope of a soul. And they seldom get acquainted just because they do not care. To become a part of what they call "the mob" In the country, folks are known for what they are and what they do. And their neighbors learn to love them overnight. In the country, where amusement's bright facilities are few. Good old-fashioned comradeship still gives delight. Yes, a party in the country is a mighty big event. And an invitation is a queen's command. Everybody goes—and later tells the world he's glad he went. It was loads of fun, and my! those rats were grand!

A heavy rain fell at the end of the week, half a mile of rain, with a heavy rain all day and evening. The threatening weather continued Thursday with rain in the morning, but brightened to a little sun in the afternoon. The committee has gone to the great deal of expense to make the grounds attractive and to provide a good program. A large dance platform was also constructed. There were several stands and other amusements on the grounds, but the rainy-noon, the ferris wheel, and the ship, which were constructed for, failed to arrive, which was a great disappointment. The Wisconsin State Fair had furnished music, Wednesday, and the Mt. Heron band on the following day. Special orchestras were engaged for the bower dance. If you are always content with a shack—bare walls—a hard bed—tough steak and chicken necks then our clothes are not for you. But if you care for the things worth while, you'll enjoy our new clothes.

We've heard some good talkers—Bryan, Beecher, Darrow, Ingersoll, LaFollette, Taft, Billy Sunday, Carrie Nation and John Segebrecht, but none has appealed more eloquently than our new Clothes for fall appeal to you today.

You can't enjoy the dance and feel comfortable when you are out for a good time if you are worried with ill-fitting clothes. Let this store care for your wardrobe, and it will keep you in solid comfort, and looking smooth and smart.

$22.50 instead of $35.00 for a Guaranteed All Wool 2-pc. suit to order. Small profits and quick sales is the reason. Don't argue. Just come and see for yourself. 3-pc. Suit or Overcoat $26.75.

We thank those who responded to our request and paid their bills. Said a man to an Irishman: "If you don't put back that spade you're taking, you'll pay for it at the day of Judgment." And Pat said: "If ye'll trust me so long I'll take another." We hope no one will let us wait until that day.

And now, we just can't help saying a word about "Sis" Morrow, our life-long, good neighbor and dear friend who was laid to rest last Sunday. Few know it now, but in the fitting words Mr. Prucia spoke over the dead, "no woman lived a more unselfish and self-sacrificing life." In her life were a few flowers, and scattered along her path was trouble, sorrow and pain, and she bore it all patiently.

Grin.

If you're up against a bruiser and you're getting knocked about—grin.

If you're feeling pretty groggy, and you're licked beyond a doubt—grin.

Don't let him see you're faking, let him know with every count. Though your face is battered to a pulp, your blushing heart is stout: Just stand upon your pins until the brawler knocks you out—And grin.

This life's a bully battle, and the same advice holds true. Of grin.

If you're up against it badly, then it's only one on you—grin.

If the future looks as thunder, don't let people see you're blue: Just cultivate a cast-iron smile, and see the whole day through—If they call you "Little Sunshine," wish they'd no troubles, too. You may grin.

Rise up in the morning with the will that, smooth or rough. You'll grin.

Sink to sleep at midnight, and allow you're feeling tough. Yet grin.

There's nothing gained by whining, and you're not that kind of stuff: You're a fighter from away back, and you won't take a rebuff: Your trouble is that you don't know when you have had enough—You'll grin.

If fate should down you, just get up and take another cuff: You may hunk on it that there is no philosophy left in life—And grin.

features that lifted Syd Chaplin to the top as a screen comedian. The new picture, written by Robert E. Sherwood, editor of "Life," and Bertalan Block. It concerns the mad adventures of a newspaper reporter, who for into the garments of a bootlegger, runs into an astounding series of adventures, and a happy ending.

The legendary character of Robin Hood, who roamed the forests of England, lives again in the first Barnard Macfadden, True Story film production, "The Wringdoers." Lionel Barrymore, the famous stage star, enacts the role of a modern Robin Hood who lives in the city of New York today. He operates a drugstore in the Greenwich Village district and carries on philanthropic work among the poor. He is leader of a loyal band of social workers who believe they can accom-

Arena Cow Testing Report

The report of the Arena Cow Testing association for the month of July, 1926, shows Marie Wilson owner of the high herd, according to the tester, M. T. Sherwood.

Ten high cows:

Owner	Breed	Age	Milk Fat
Carl Olson, G.H.	7	1391	96.2
Marie Wilson, G.H.	1	1874	63.1
C. M. Roberts, G.H.	8	1178	56.9
Mortimer Bros., G.H.	3	1364	63.2
Mortimer Bros., G.H.	10	1147	51.8
Mortimer Bros., G.H.	3	1271	20.8
A. Hottmann, G.H.	8	1488	50.6
Geo. Wilkinson, G.H.	12	1240	49.6
Frank Wolf, G.H.	9	1437	49.5
A. O. Roberts, H.D.	7	961	48.1

Ten high herds, with number of cows, breed, number of cows, average pounds milk, and average pounds fat:

average, butterfat per cow for the past month was 27 pounds per cow with ten dry cows and 331 cows milking, against an average of 26.5 pounds per cow for the month previous with 11 dry cows and 550 cows milking. Or in other words a drop of .5 pounds of butterfat per cow.

Had these herds been fed a supplemental grain ration with the pastures it is safe to assume that this drop would not have occurred. Taking other factors such as season of the year and the advancing lactation into consideration it might be said to say that failure to supplement the pastures with a grain ration cost the farmer better than one dollar per cow over and above the cost of the

The excessive drop in production this month over last month emphasizes the necessity of supplementing the pasture with a grain ration.

Average butterfat per cow for the past month was 27 pounds per cow with ten dry cows and 261 cows in milk, against an average of 27.1 pounds per cow for the month previous with 11 dry cows and 520 cows in milk. Or in other words a drop of 2.7 pounds of butterfat per cow.

Had these herds been fed a supplementary grain ration with the pasture, it is safe to assume that this drop would not have occurred. Taking all other factors such as season of the year and the advancing lactation period into consideration it might be safe to say that failure to supplement the pastures with a grain ration cost each owner better than one dollar per cow over and above the cost of the feed.

Then there is a long established rule to be considered that if cows are fed grain on pasture they will require less grain later on to insure maximum production of winter milk. Supplement the summer pastures with a grain ration and insure a maximum winter supply, and in addition make sure that your cows are in the best of physical condition by reason of such feeding.

M. T. Sherwood, Tester.

PLATEVILLE AUTO CRASH.

Abraham Stein, of Chi-go, was instantly killed, and his companion, F. J. Johnson, was seriously injured, on Sunday night when their touring car jumped a turn on highway 80 about two miles north of Plattville and plunged through a heavy wire fence down a 30-foot embankment.
