Calf Born With Two Heads.

A more or less of a monstrosity has been born on the farm of Charles Chantry, in southeast Rutland. It is a calf with two perfectly formed heads and three ears. The third ear located midway between the two heads with an opening of the ear toward each head. The mother is a Holstein cow. The owner killed the calf.

Rural Carrier Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the county of Dane, Wisconsin, to be held at Madison and Stoughton on April 23, 1921, to fill the position of rural carrier at Mt. Horeb, and Riley, and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post-offices in the above-mentioned county. The salary of a rural carrier on a standard daily route of twenty-four miles is $1,800 per annum, with an additional $200 per mile per annum for each mile or major fraction thereof in excess of twenty-four miles. The examination will be open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a postoffice in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in form No. 1977.

Both men and women, if qualified, may enter this examination, but appointing officers have the legal right to specify the sex desired in requesting certification of eligibles. Women will not be considered for rural carrier appointment unless they are the widows of U. S. soldiers, sailors, or marines, or the wives of U. S. soldiers, sailors, or marines who are physically disqualified for examination by reason of injuries received in the line of military duty. Form No. 1077 and application blanks may be obtained from the office mentioned above or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington, D. C., at the earliest practicable date.

—On Monday evening, shortly after 6 o'clock, a fire was discovered in the second-story of the Commercial Travelers' hotel, owned jointly by John Ziemke, of Sauk City, and Commercial Hotel proprietors. The fire company was called out and after a half-hour of fighting, the fire was under control.

—The fire was under control, and the building which is covered by insurance, Geo. Steuber lost a horse which was overcome by smoke before the wall of the barn could be cut open. Another horse was saved. The second story of the barn which contained about five tons of hay is almost a wreck.—Prairie du Sac News.

—Testimony was continued in superior court at Madison yesterday in the case of William Corcoran, who is charged with playing a confidence game. Mrs. Mary Peterick is the complaining witness. Corcoran testified that he was secretary of the F. A. Starek Co., whose stock he had given Mrs. Peterick in exchange for other stock on which to realize money, and maintained that he did not know that the stock he gave her was worthless.

—He also declared that he did not know that the company had forfeited its charter and that it had practically ceased business before he gave Mrs. Peterick the stock.

—Very soon at the cemetery meeting last Thursday? Why didn't you come and show by your presence that you appreciated the efforts of the officers, and hear the financial report, so you would know how the money was spent, and what improvements were made.

—It was voted to raise the price of caring for lots to $1.50 per year, and it should be paid as early in the season as possible so that competent help can be secured. The improvements on the roads are nearing completion, and then there will be a financial report made. There will be a food sale at the Guild hall for the benefit of the cemetery on April 10th. If the solicitors do not find you, please see that your contribution reaches the sale early.—Committee.
