VOL. XLVIII.

MAZOMANIE, DANB COUNTY, WISCONSIN, FRIDAY, MAY 27, 1921

NO. 17

OLD RESIDENT DIES.

Resident of City Since 1872 Succumbs After Illness Since March 1.

Wisconsin Rapids Daily Tribune, May 19, 1921: W. T. Jones, a pioneer resident of Wisconsin Rapids and one of the greatest contributors to the city's development, died at his home at 337 First avenue south at 8:30 this morning of cancer of the stomach. He had been ill since March 1, when he was compelled to give up his business duties and his numerous other activities, including his duties as a member of the county board, on which he had served for three years.

The passing of Mr. Jones takes from the city a citizen honored and respected for a life devoted unselfishly to the best interests of his family and his community. Coming to Wisconsin Rapids in its pioneer days, he has seen the city grow and thrive, and his contribution to its civic development merits the gratitude of all who knew him, as a personal friend and as a citizen.

The deceased was born at Geneva, Wisconsin, November 21, 1852, the son of Mary and John Jones, pioneer settlers who came to this country from England and Wales. Soon after his birth, the family moved to Mazomanie, Wis., where he received his education in the public schools, earning his way by clerking in a store. Finishing his education, he taught school for a year.

On Dec. 25, 1876, Mr. Jones married Caroline Compton. Seven children were born to them, six of whom are living. The brothers and sisters of the deceased man are: Mrs. D. A. Teller of this city; Mrs. Alice Muir of Nekosia; Mrs. Elizabeth Culver of Long Beach, Cal.; Charles Jones of Mazomanie, Wis., and Edward Jones of Pittsburg, Oklahoma.

Mr. Jones came to Grand Rapids in 1872, with the first railroad, the Green Bay and Western, that entered the city, acting as cook for the construction crew which was building the railroad connecting Grand Rapids with the centers of civilization.

He was mayor of Centralia in 1888, and county clerk from 1889 to 1898. Later he became a contractor.

The deceased has always been active in politics. A Democrat in principle, he was a member of the Democratic State Central Committee from the 8th district in 1894.

Mr. Jones is the oldest mason, in point of membership, in the city, and was dean of the lodge at the time of his death. He will receive the Masonic funeral services, the Reverend Mr. Breck assisting. Funeral services will take place Saturday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock at the home and 2:30 from the Masonic temple.

RURAL COMMENCEMENT.

Games and Sports Among Exercises of This Session.

Wheel-barrow races, three-legged relay races and such games as "Hill dill, over the hill" are among the sports planned for the Health day. This is in connection with the June county rural commencement exercises at Madison.

The games will be held in the afternoon at Vilas park and will be under the direction of Miss Margaret McCarthy, physical director of the Madison Y. W. C. A. She will be assisted by girls from the physical education department of the University. The schedule of games follows:

Boys—50 yard dash; Basketball throw; Wheel-barrow race. Girls—50 yard dash; 25 yard shuttle relay; Band and Stoop relay. Boy and Girl—Three-legged race. Games—Hill dill, over the hill, King of France, jump stick, exchange, elephant's fly.

The morning of June 3 will be taken up with the commencement exercises and with the performance of Cho Cho, the famous health clown of the Child Health Organization of America. Posters announcing the visit of Cho Cho, and urging all Dane county children to come to see him are being mailed to Dane county towns by the county nurses, Miss Gertrude Burnson and Miss Mabel Davidson.

ARENA

Mrs. Joseph Pechan, of Avoca has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Dennis Sweney.

Several families in Arena and vicinity are quarantined with small pox, in a light form.

Madison were visitors at the J. C. Nelson home last week.

Indore Iallo has sold his farm to T. G. Creiger and Wm. G. Ort, and will make his home in Milwaukee.

J. Bowers, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is here on a visit to his son, James. He made the trip in his car.

The commencement exercises of the high school were held at the Temple, Thursday evening, last week.

Miss Olive Schult has accepted a position in Dodgeville. She has been attending the 4-C college at Madison.

The Arena town baseball team were victors in a game played with the O'Connell & Meyer team, of Madison, Saturday, 6 to 4.

Memorial exercises will be held at the First Congregational church next Sunday. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. A. Bergman, pastor.

Bad baseball weather did not cause Spring Green a break in its winning streak. At Arena, Sunday, they defeated the village team 15 to 7. It was a good game for several innings, but finished up by the airplane route, both teams developing cases of hysteria.

MILWAUKEE MEN COMING.

Twenty-five Piece Band Will Furnish Music While Here.

Monday, June 6th will be a gala day at Mazomanie when the Milwaukee Association of Commerce special train carrying 100 Milwaukee business men and a 25 piece band arrives in this city.

The Cream City delegation will bring Milwaukee's greeting in person. Each member of the tour will wear a white felt hat and carry a white cane, this being the official uniform of the trip, and designating the members of the party.

The itinerary will include 45 cities and towns in central and southern Wisconsin, south-eastern Minnesota, and north-eastern Iowa, covering about 1000 miles, and occupying about five days. It is the 18th of its kind staged by the Milwaukee Association of Commerce.

The special train consists of five Pullmans, two diners, two baggage cars, a service car, and observation car, and is one of the largest and most completely equipped ever used for a purpose of this kind. Each car will be in charge of a special chairman, and the entire train under the general direction of Mr. John L. Klingler, President of the Ellsworth & Mather Mfg. Company, and Chairman of the Tour Committee. A corps of six porters, eight waiters, four chefs, and four assistants under the direction of a special superintendent of service, will look out for the comfort of the participants of the trip.

CARDIFF GIANT GREATEST HOAX

Delegates Lay to Rest Last Remains of Fake Advertising.

Fort Dodge, Ia.—That it pays to advertise was brought home to delegates to the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of Iowa when they were escorted to a warehouse in the city and shown the Cardiff Giant.

The Cardiff Giant, a hoax which has been advertising a wake was conducted for the Cardiff Giant.

The last remains of fake advertising.

The Cardiff Giant was carved 50 years ago from a block of gypsum quarried near Fort Dodge. The giant was taken to New York state and buried. Two years later it was discovered and the news was flashed that the petrified body of a prehistoric giant had been discovered. Prominent scientists of the day declared any one doubting that the stone man had once lived merely displayed ignorance. The perpetrators of the fraud got rich exhibiting the giant, so that the story started spreading among themselves when the fact that it was a hoax got out.

CLIFFORD FOR STATE.

Green Bay Man Selected by Attorney General in Bancroft-Smalley Case.

Atty. Gen. William Morgan Saturday morning officially ordered the proceedings to be instituted against Sherman E. Smalley recently elected circuit judge of the fifth district, on charge of corrupt practices in the April election at which he defeated Levi H. Bancroft. He has appointed G. F. Clifford of Green Bay as special counsel for the state to carry on the prosecution.

It is expected that suit will at once be filed with the circuit court of the fifth district, while Judge Bancroft it still on the bench. He retires June 6 to give way to his successor, Smalley and effort will be made to get proceedings underway, together with a change of venue, before that time.

MOVIES

IDEAL MAJESTIC THEATRE
FRIDAY, SATURDAY, MAY 27 and 28
Paramount and Arcturaf Special De Lux Pictures presents the cosmopolitan production, "Humoresque," a photo play featuring ALMA RUBENS, and VERA GORDON, known as "the greatest mother love character on the stage or screen today, also little Bobby Connelly, story by Fannie Hurst, the highest paid short story writer in America. Scenario by Miss Frances Marion. "Humoresque" is hailed by critics everywhere as one of the really big pictures of the year. A song that somehow catches all of life's laughter and pathos into its magic notes—that's Dvorak's famous "Humoresque." When Fannie Hurst wrote her novel of the ghetto genius who became a celebrated violinist, she succeeded in accomplishing much that Ives had not.

Extra good Charlie Chaplin comedy in two parts, entitled, "His Jitney Elopement." Comedy will be run first, to allow those a little late for the starting to get in on the big picture.

Don't miss seeing "Humoresque" on one of these two days. It's your opportunity to see this excellent photo play of real heart interest.

Admission 25c and 35c. War tax paid.

SUNDAY, MAY 29.
Realtor Special Features presents the dainty and fascinating stage and screen star, MISS BEBE DANIELS, in "She Couldn't Help It," with an all star cast of note, including the oldest standing screen star, Mr. Herbert Standing, who is in his 74th year. Adapted from "In The Bishop's Carriage." Novel by Miriam Michelson, and play by Channing Pollock. An excellent entertaining photoplay with a delightful star in the lead.

Extra good two-part comedy entitled "The Hunt," featuring Ford Sterling and an all star comedy cast. Don't MONDAY, MAY 30. (Decoration Day).

Paramount and Arcturaf Special Photoplays presents the noted stage and screen star, ROBERT WARWICK, and an all star cast, in "Missouri," from the play by Augustus Thomas, and directed by Hugh Ford, a combination hard to beat. Robert Warwick is liked by everyone. We promise you will not be disappointed with our program. Good comedies go with this program.

Admission 10c and 20c. War tax paid.

Tuesday, May 31, Wednesday, June 1.
The Mazomanie High School Senior Class Play will be given at this theatre.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, JUNE 2 and 3.
Fox Special Western Photoplays presents the daring and favorite westerns, stage and screen star of the western plains, TOM MIX, and Margaret Lockwood, in "Three Gold Coins." "Believing" (Tom Mix) a happy-go-lucky cow-puncher in California, found himself broke in every way excepting in spirit and six hundred dollars worthless land. While reading a notice from the tax collector he saw an automobile running wild. He took a flying leap on his horse, dashed after the car, roped it and with the aid of Spike and Boots, two companions, saved it and its occupants from being snatched and stunts. Don't miss it. Splendid comedies for good measure. Admission 10c and 20c. War tax paid.

Saturday, June 4.—Robertson-Cole Dist. Corp. presents the dandy and noted athlete, William Desmond, and full supporting cast, in "Life's a Funny Proposition," an excellent photoplay in five parts.

A splendid supreme comedy entitled "Puppy Love," featuring Brownie, the wonder dog.

Admission 10 cents and 20 cents. War tax included.

Show starts at 7:30.

"CHINA WEEK" IS SUPREME EFFORT OF FUND WORKERS

As a practical and popular demonstration of the sympathy of the nation for a sister republic, a "China Famine Week," to be observed throughout the United States, has been set for the eight days from Sunday, May 1, to Sunday, May 8, inclusive.
In this week it is hoped that the churches and civic, commercial and professional bodies will take an active part. The success of this week will determine largely the amount of relief which can be sent through personal sacrifice to 5,000,000 starving people still dependent on outside aid.

SYNOPSIS.

ACT I.—Living room in the Beverly home. Morning.
The affairs of the Beverly household have reached a critical stage. Mr. Beverly is surrounded by an extravagant family. Creditors follow him to his home and threaten proceedings. Polly Perkins, Mr. Beverly's ward and a modest helper, becomes a member of the Beverly home.
ACT II.—Living room in the Beverly house. One week later.
Polly goes to the poor districts to help people. She brings to the Beverly home two ragged, unwashed children, causing joy, consternation, and condemnation among the members of the "400." Beverly returns from the city a ruined man. Polly comes to the rescue with her legacy.
ACT III.—Living room in the Beverly home. A month later. Evening.
Mr. Beverly's son, Baldwin, falls in love with Polly. It proves the making of him. He goes to work the first time in his life. Through Polly's influence, the better instincts of the Beverly family come to the surface and they learn the joy of the simpler, saner things.
Prices for general admission, adults, 25 cents; children, 25 cents. Seats may be reserved for 5 cents extra. Tickets on sale and seats reserved at Geo. A. Shields' drug store.

LIKED DIRT CARB

BUT FEARED WOMEN WOULD STEAL HIS CLOTHES.

Armenian Refused to Go Home From Hospital Until Skirt Was Made Into Trousers.

By a Near East Relief Worker.

"Petros Martirosian refuses to go home!"
The matron of the hospital made an announcement, and asked us what I was going to do about it. I was in the hospital for two months, the doctor says he is cured, and we need the bed for another patient. I have given him clothes—the best we had, but he has been sitting in the yard all day and refuses to move.
I remembered Petros, who had come with a bad case of frozen feet. He had told me something about his home and family and had been impatient to get back to his village. I went out to have a talk with him and see what was the matter.
Was this Petros? This grotesque and pathetic figure crouching at the hospital door? A lilac sunbonnet drooped over his gloomy eyes, a faded pink pajama coat covered the upper part of his anatomy, and below came a black velvet skirt, of the hobbie variety. The fashionable length of this garment exposed his very bon and hairy ankles. On one foot he wore an old overshoe tied with a piece of string, on the other an army boot.
"Poor old scrawner!" It was all I could do to keep from laughing—or crying.
"Petros looked forward and I closed the hem of my apron. "Orfentjan," (beloved Miss) he said, "I beg you not to send me home in these clothes—they are beautiful—certainly satisfy you. We sell on the squareland plan—first a minute, if it does not satisfy you perfectly, the trial does not cost you a cent.
Believe me, select the bicycle you want and terms delivered free. We give the largest value in the U. S. at 25 cents." He gave the largest value in the U. S. at 25 cents.

SOLDIERS GUARD STORES

Buying of Spring Clothing in Asia Minor a Matter Needing Police Protection.

When the citizens of a certain district of Asia Minor go to buy their spring clothes it is a matter for military protection. Police alone are not sufficient to steady the title to the eager bargain hunters. Six Greek soldiers keep guard over the entrance and according to the report of Melville Chater, New York newspaper man on a tour of inspection for the Near East Relief, they frequently needed before the day's business is over.
For the price of admission to this district is a Greek camp, issued to each of us and it knows are in dire need of clothing. Since this district practically all of the thousands of utterly destitute people in the district, it's a case of first come, first served, and the rush that is made the minute the doors are open, needs all the authority that a soldier can command to keep under control.
The store which dispenses clothing for the price of a yellow card is none other than the Near East Relief station. And the clothing dispensed with is that sent over from America from the collections made on bundle days by the organization.
But despite the great generosity of the American people last year there is never enough to go around, writes Mr. Chater on his return from one of these clothes dispensing visits, and he sees the same thing everywhere at a glance. The scene surrounding us resembled a run on a bank—a bank of American old clothes.
But it must all be done systematically, so the soldier keeps back the crowds and a Near East Relief worker stands up on a table and calls out the names given her on the Greek government list. Old and young alike crowd up, each eager for meager quota of the cast-offs, and follow the envious eyes of those who behold the all too rapid decrease of the stock on hand. Of course there is the usual over-insistent character—an old woman—who creates such a disturbance that at last she is removed, screaming her protests.
"An hour has elapsed," writes Mr. Chater, "and the Greek government families have been outfitted and the beds have shrunk to an awful of rags. The mothers of some two hundred unprovided families lift their arms mournfully in the air toward us. Even the heap of rags remains have been scavenged, down to the very burlap bale-coverings and as our car founders off under a darkening sky, we catch a last glimpse of the over-insistent women now proudly enveloped in brown sackings, with the stenciled capitals, 'WORK CLOTHING, U. S. A.' showing between her shoulders."
An opportunity is being given the thousands of this country to make their contributions to the Bundle Day Drive which the Near East Relief is holding during June to supply these still homeless people for the coming winter. Make it possible for all those mothers to get a bargain when the Near East Relief shop opens in their villages next fall. What you would throw away will save the lives of naked little children in today's day! Bundle up your old clothes and send them to 549 West 38th Street, New York, from which place they will be best forwarded. Self-addressed tags will be furnished on request from the Wisconsin headquarters, 229 Plankinton Arcade, Milwaukee.
