OBITUARY

J. H. Williams.

The funeral services of John H. Williams were held from St. Luke's Episcopal church, Mazomanie, of Friday afternoon, April 27th, Archdeacon William Dawson, of Madison, officiating. A short service was held at his home in Spooner before bringing the body to Mazomanie, the Rev. George Clarke officiating. The interment was in the Mazomanie cemetery, where his wife and other relatives are buried.

John H. Williams was born October 14, 1847, at Baraboo, Wisconsin. He died at his home in Spooner, Wisconsin, April 22, 1923. He was married, November 4, 1874, to Miss Elizabeth Williams, of Rosendale, Wisconsin. His wife preceded him to the better land, June 4, 1911.

To this union were born eight children, four girls and four boys. The children now living are Mrs. Mary Cooke, Mrs. Elizabeth Knight, Mrs. Catherine Jackson, and Mrs. Sophie Davies. The two surviving sons are

John A. Williams, and George H. Williams. Of the other two sons, Francis died in 1901, at the age of twenty-six years.

Mr. Williams was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America, a member of the town board of the town of Casey, Washburn county. He was also a member and communicant of the Protestant Episcopal church. He was baptized as an infant at Trinity church at Baraboo, and confirmed at St. Luke's church, Mazomanie, thirty years ago. He had been an active communicant member of the church ever since his confirmation at St. Luke's, Mazomanie. He was a member of the church at Spooner at the time of his death.

Mr. Williams was a genuine American citizen, and represents that sturdy yeomanry of this commonwealth that have given their time and energies to the building of the state and nation—men of high intelligence, but not afraid of toil. As a father, husband and friend he was one of the best, and his life was completed in the faith he professed and followed. It was this that gave life its true zest, and made life worth living.

It is a great accomplishment after all—living a good life for seventy-five years—to have raised a family and left a record of clean living and high thinking. It is also a notable achievement to have raised a family of children, all of which are useful and respected citizens of the communities in which they live.

In reviewing this life we can truly say: "Well done thou good and faithful servant," and the words of Solomon are applicable: "The good man has nothing to fear, either here or yonder."

Those present at the funeral from out of town were Geo. H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Davies and two little daughters, of Spooner, Wis.; Wm. Williams, Miss Sarah Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Davies and son, Joseph T. W. Davies and daughter Miss Emily, of Ridgeway, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knight and daughter, Ruth, of Arena; Mrs. Albert Huest, of Black Earth; Mr. and Mrs. Ole Bakken, of Madison; and Miss Agnes Cooke, of Blair, Wis.

Cord of Thanks.

We wish to thank those who in any way assisted us in the burial of our father, J. H. Williams.

His Children.

Notice.

To the Editor:

In a recent issue of your paper Vera V. Gorst saw fit to publish a certain statement signed by myself relative to her suit against me for alleged slander, and to which she added a foot note stating that it was a copy of the "retraction" signed by me as "part settlement of the suit."

Miss Gorst knows, or being a school teacher she at least ought to know, that said statement is not a "retraction" in any sense of the word and her attorney knows that at the time it was signed, I took the position that I had nothing to take back or "retract" and that I positively refused to sign anything in the nature of a "retraction," and a mere reading of said statement will show that the statement is not a "retraction" of any kind.

It merely states, in substance, that what I did say at the school meeting was not said about her and that I did not in any manner intend to reflect upon her moral character and knew nothing against it.

She was not present at the school meeting and her information as to what occurred there was untrue, and she brought the action against me without any personal knowledge on her part as to what my language in fact was.

As to the so-called "retraction" being "part of the settlement," I desire to state that I paid Miss Gorst personally no money whatever, contrary to reports that are being circulated.

that I paid her a large amount of money as damages.

On the plea of her attorney that she was a poor girl and unable to stand the expense of her witness and attorney fees, and knowing that she had been led into the suit by others, I gave her attorneys a small sum of money to apply on such expenses.

As far as Miss Gorst is concerned, I have nothing to retract for the reason that the language reported to her was false and what I did say referred only to others, and she must have come to the same conclusion as otherwise she would not have dismissed her $5,000.00 suit against me in the manner which she did.

In view of you having published her statement and of the many false reports being circulated concerning the matter, I ask you in fairness and justice to me to give this statement the same prominent publicity as was given her article.

Daniel J. Lynch.

OBITUARY

Ira Garfoot.

Ira Garfoot died at St. Mary's hospital, at Madison, Friday, April 27, 1923, after a short illness.

Mr. Garfoot was born and raised in the town of Cross Plains, and on May 24, 1868, was united in marriage to Miss Annabel Howery. To this union three children were born, namely, Roy Alvin, who died in infancy; Mrs. Gladys Murphy, of Pine Bluff, and Earl Wesley, who is at home.

Mrs. Garfoot died at the Mt. Horeb hospital January 7, 1905. Two years later he was united in marriage to Miss Ryella Michaels. To this union five children were born.

Mr. Garfoot had held a number of offices; was especially interested in school work, having held the office of school clerk for twenty-one years. He was also one of the adjusters of the Blue Mounds Fire Insurance company.

Mr. Garfoot was a good neighbor.

a kind father and a loving husband, and leave, to mourn his death a wife, seven children, three sisters, five brothers, and a large number of friends, as was shown by the large number that came to pay their last respects to the deceased and offer sympathy to the bereaved family.

The funeral was at nine o'clock at the home Monday morning, and at ten o'clock at the St. Mary's church at Pine Bluff where the remains were laid to rest in the Pine Bluff cemetery.

Mr. Garfoot was a brother of Mrs. Wm. Hunsen, Mrs. Wm. Dunn, and R. J. Garfoot, of this place.

It causes some people a heap of worry because so many of their expected troubles never happen.

Lumbago. This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dunn, Brockport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I was flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

Fast friends leave you as soon as you cut down on the speed.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

ANNOUNCEMENT

OF INTEREST TO

MILLIONS OF FAMILIES

"I WILL BUILD A CAR FOR THE MULTITUDE"

Said Henry Ford in 1903—Read how the fulfillment of that prophecy is now made possible through the

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

For many years it has been Henry Ford's personal ambition to make the Ford the universal family car—to put it within the reach of the millions of people who have never been privileged to enjoy the benefits of motor car ownership.

During the past fifteen years over 7,500,000 Ford cars have been placed in the hands of retail customers—more than a million and a half of them within the past twelve months—and yet there are still millions of families who are hopefully looking forward to the day when they can own a Ford. And now the way is open.

Under the terms of this plan you can select your Ford Car, set aside a small amount each week and you will be surprised how soon you will own it. In the meantime your money will be safely deposited to your credit in one of the local banks where it will draw interest.

Think it over. Five dollars will start an account. The whole family can participate in it—father, mother, brothers and sisters each doing a little.

Why not start today. Stop in and talk it over with your local Ford dealer. He will be glad to fully explain the details of the plan and help you get started toward the ownership of a Ford car.

—Discharge of some of the clerical help assisting assessors of incomes throughout the state to become effective May 1 was ordered by the state tax commission on Friday. This action was taken as the result of the action of the assembly in sustaining a veto by Gov. Blaine of an appropriation of $17,000 to the tax commission.

to carry on certain clerical work during the months of May and June.

—I am now located in my former quarters, the Fairbank building, (formerly the Reible building) and in this more commodious garage am better able to attend to your needs. I am fully equipped to do all kinds of automobile repairing in a first-class manner, and also carry automobile parts and supplies. Call on me when in need of anything in my line.—C. F. Mather.

—Coming! All next week, "Beebees' Conquistas" is a High Class Repertoire, consisting of high class vaudeville dramas, and side splitting Farce Comedies. Good music, good staging, good dancing, and plenty of good clean comedy. A clean high class entertainment for ladies, gentlemen and children. Popular contests each and every evening. Cash prizes will be awarded. You'll laugh, you'll scream, and you'll roar. First night ten cents. See bills for date.

—According to the State Journal, assemblyman E. J. Peterson, Milwaukee, and William Kittie, secretary of the state board of normal school regents, engaged in a fist fight in the capitol Thursday afternoon in which Mr. Kittie was knocked down and his eyeglasses broken. The fight was staged about 4 p. m. near the assembly corridors following a heated committee hearing before the assembly committee on education. Mr. Kittie is formerly principal of the local schools.

—Helen Lucille, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bryant, of Mounds Creek, died at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bryant, in this village, April 28, 1923. She was born February 8, 1923. The funeral was held Saturday at the home in Mounds Creek, services being conducted by Rev. F. M. Prucha. Interment was made in the Mazomanie cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant gratefully extend thanks to all relatives and friends for their kind assistance during the illness and burial of their little daughter.

—Al and Emily Beebe surely hit the big time calendar mark with their show, Beebees' Comedians. Emily is as clever a comedienne as the stage boasts today and much better than many a so-called comedienne in a score of Broadway productions. She has spontaneity, all qualities, the undeniably unctious. She knows how to put number over, plays well. She is charming, dainty and refined. Al is a real white comedian and puts his material over with zip and vigor. Both are a Black Cat duo and as a side note, they are a real hit.

years the hit of Gifford Young Store Company with their specialties, and though their many hard working days have advanced and today are touting with their own show which is meeting with success at every stand. The show is a clean, moral, pleasing, attraction carrying a carefully selected company of able artists, in their respective lines. The company numbering six only, but all are capable big time performers.

Some who think they are in the running merely have wheels in their head.

WANT PICTURES OF BEAUTIES

But Natives of Out-of-the-Way Places Have Their Own Idea of What is Beautiful.

Meyer Krupp of Seattle, veteran trader of furs, who for 25 years has penetrated the out-of-the-way places in the Orient, says that even in islands that are uncharted and virtually unknown the beauty of American women is known. For, when trading sable skins, the natives demand in return pictures of pretty women. Mr. Krupp takes on each trip hundreds of photographs of women. He selects the pictures at random.

One can never tell what the natives' demands will be for women's photographs says Mr. Krupp, according to the Seattle Times. Bonds as a rule are much desired. One well-known movie picture star, whose salary is reputed to be equal to that of the President, members of his cabinet and the director of the mint combined, would not doubt be shocked if he knew the kind of appreciation evidenced among the natives of her much-heralded beauty. The trader could not better say one damn or her photograph for the skin of an ordinary squirrel trapped out of season, while on the other hand obscures a woman, a film company's extra crowd, a woman who has never once figured in "fade-out" is all the rage among fur hunters. The traders and hunters talk over her picture in terms of sable skins.

ELECTRICITY IN HUMAN BODY

Alleged That Some People Can Produce Sparks That Will Light the Gas.

Almost everyone is familiar with what is known as static electricity. One rubs the cat's fur for the fun of it and gets a little shock. The cat, however, must be a dry cat. Or one walks across a carpeted floor on a dry winter's day and then touches a radiator or some other metal object; whereupon there is a perceptible discharge from the body. It is this static electricity that can light the gas in that way. Anyhow, while sparks produced in this manner are ordinarily harmless, they are sometimes the cause of a source of serious danger. They cause a great many accidents in gasoline distilleries, explosive factories, mills, dry-cleaning establishments, cotton-gins and threshing machines. The National Association of Dryers and Cleaners of the United States is now undertaking an active campaign to eliminate fire from this source. As much as appreciable amounts of static electricity can be produced only when the surrounding air is very dry, the most effective prevention is to dampen the atmosphere of factory rooms by injecting steam.

Wealth in Marine Fur Trade.

As for a million on this business. To be sure, this is through the figures reported by the state game department. But the official totals do not give the catch on thousands of farms where the boys do their own shooting and trapping; nor do they include many thousands of dollars' worth of furs shipped directly out of the state without check on them, says the Lewiston Journal. Many a farm is worth far more for the furs it bears than for the garden stuff it raises. The state is rich in skunks, for instance, which is one of the most valuable "crops" we have. Muskrats, though not so plentiful, when dyed form the fashionable "Hudson seal." Minks and raccoons and weasels and foxes, with other game, constitute the bulk of this wealth.

Explaining the "Planetesimal" Theory
The visiting star left behind a sun surrounded by a vast revolving cloud of matter that had been torn out of this cloud were millions of small lumps of matter-called "planetesimals," or baby planets. One of them, a little larger than the others, became the nucleus of our earth. It picked up the matter it came in contact with by revolving about the sun in the same general path. Think of a molasses-coated baseball flying through an endless swarm of grains.

In the course of time—millions on millions of years—the earth picked up nearly all the baby planets within its reach.—Popular Science Monthly.
Left Her Wondering.
I was cleaning house, and was wearing an old dress. I went out the back door to shake the last rug and noticed a nicely dressed gentleman coming up the drive. He is quite a distance from the road to our house. I decided I could tidy myself up a little before he arrived. So I changed my dress, brushed my hair and waited for the doorman to ring. But I waited in vain. When I looked out of the window he had entirely disappeared. I wonder if he had been frightened away.—Exchange.

Heat From Oil and Coal.
It is generally recognized that under normal conditions 125 gallons of oil will produce about the same amount of valuable heat as ton of coal. With gas oil at the present price of eight cents a gallon, the relative expenditures would be $12 for oil and $14 for coal.

TURN ME OVER

Canada Wars on Beavers.

Beavers have become so destructive along the St. Lawrence river that owners of islands in Canadian and United States waters have been given permission by the Dominion government to exterminate them on the Canadian side of the boundary.

An experienced trapper has been engaged for the season and will make his headquarters on Dillingham's island.

Beavers have not been seen along the St. Lawrence before in a quarter of a century. They are protected by game laws on the New York side of the river.

Pay for Nonsuccess.

Paying out cost unsuccessful candidates at the recent British election something like $33,000. England has a law which requires a man who puts himself forward for parliament, before he has enough popular esteem to get one-eighth of the votes cast in his district to forfeit the sum which amounts to approximately $700 in our money. More than fifty candidates suffered the forfeiture in the November election.—The Nation's Business.

A woman might be willing to try to live on love, but a man does not love her who would let her try it.

Prayers are most often answered after you have given up waiting for the Lord to wait on you and have taken pick and shovel and gone out after what you want.

—All schools in Dane county are preparing for the Field Meet and Health Day carnival of June 1. The western section is holding its local play days now at the close of the regular school term under the supervision of the University Agricultural triangle. Seventeen township chairmen have been elected to supervise the work in eastern Dane county. They are Albion, Nellie Connors; Blooming Grove, L. Mae Pennewell; Bristol, Theodore Kingland; Burke, Esther Johnson; Christiansburg, Susanna Leach; Cottage Grove, Mildred Reynolds; Deer, Laura Burthe; Dunk, Ada Haugen; Dunn, Dorothy Hanson; Medford, Rose Johnson; Pleasant Springs, Maeta Hanson; Rutland, Gertrude Stockton; Sun Prairie, Charlotte Hall; Vienna, Mrs. Joie Longteig; Westport, Cora Thompson; Winslow, Mabel Bottrick; York, Phoebe Mabel White. In addition to the athletic awards a prize will be given to the two schools showing the most original ideas in the Health parade which will start the day's festivities after lunch. Fun and frolic yield a real carnival atmosphere, and each school in the county will be represented by a float in the parade. The chairmen are urged to further plans for an interesting and lively parade. Health bands, clowns, tooth brush brigades, anti-coffee floats, children driving a large milk bottle, Cho-cho with his health fairies or the cow ought to be in attendance. The vegetable and fruit families with the health knights and characters from Mother Goose rhymes are suggestions. The Field Committee, Crot house, Madison, will be pleased to answer any inquiries.

Miss Mary Meeker, Brooklyn, N. Y., won a prize for her beautiful hands, called by judges the most beautiful in America. They are six and one-eighth inches long and three wide. Mothers, when you show this to your daughter tell her Miss Meeker credits the beauty of her hands to washing dishes.

—The state department of agriculture paid out more than $72,000 for the damage caused by dogs in the last two years to Wisconsin citizens. But the dollar dog tax more than pays the damage. Claims under the dog law are largely for sheep killed or injured, according to reports of the department. More than ninety percent of the claims of twenty of the counties last year were for damages caused to sheep. Indemnity is provided for under the dog tax which forms a fund assuring protection regardless of failure to identify the dog or of the inability of the individual dog owner to pay for the damages done.
